ABOUT ME

Hello, I'm Niloufar

But I like you to call me Aura and I'm 20 years old. With over 3 years of experience, I am a graphic designer committed to creativity and expertise in creating visually appealing designs. My skills include leading design teams and delivering successful projects in various fields. Skilled in using common design software, I have great attention to detail and the ability to translate complex ideas into attractive designs. Excited about the opportunity to work with creative teams, I look forward to using my experience and skills to create impactful and global design solutions.

EXPERIENCE

SENIOR GRAPHIC DESIGNER

APR 2023 - Now

Since my last employment until the present, I have been actively engaged in running my own website, focusing on freelance design projects for various clients. During this period, I have leveraged my skills to provide tailored and creative design solutions, collaborating with clients to meet their specific needs. As a self-employed designer, I take pride in my ability to manage projects independently, ensuring the delivery of high-quality visual content and maintaining a strong commitment to client satisfaction.

SENIOR GRAPHIC DESIGNER

DASH - Digital cash | Arizona, US

OCT 2022 - APR 2023

I served as a Senior Graphic Designer at Dash-Digital Cash, leading creative initiatives, overseeing design projects, and ensuring optimal performance of all banner ads. Through mutual cooperation, I gained a fascinating experience in the world of digital currency.

CREATIVE DESIGNER

Shell Comapny | USA

SEP 2021 - SEP 2022

As a creative designer at Shell, I leveraged my passion for design to enhance the visual appeal of the company's blog. With a focus on creating engaging and cohesive content, I collaborated closely with cross-functional teams to bring innovative design concepts to life. My role involved aligning design elements with Shell's brand identity, ensuring a seamless and visually captivating representation on the blog. Through a combination of compelling graphics and thoughtful layouts, I strived to elevate the overall user experience. Staying attuned to design trends, I brought a fresh perspective to the team, keeping the blog visually dynamic and aligned with industry best practices. I was excited about contributing my creative expertise, and I was dedicated to fortifying the connection between Shell and its audience through impactful and aesthetically pleasing design.

JUNIOR GRAPHIC DESIGNER

Freelance | Remote

MAY 2020 - SEP 2021

Freelance graphic designer (self-employed) As a freelance graphic designer, I have successfully collaborated with various clients on a wide variety of projects. From creating compelling visual identities to designing impactful marketing materials, my work demonstrates a commitment to providing tailored and creative solutions.
